A RARE opportunity to own treasures from one of Cincinnati's Most Prominent Families. Auction proceeds will benefit the Greenacres Foundation which was established by Louis and Louise Dieterle Nippert to promote their love of the environment, sustainable agriculture and the cultural arts by educating children and providing community experiences. The Nipperts were noted Cincinnati philanthropists, arts patrons and former proud owners of the World Champion Cincinnati Reds baseball team. Mr. Nippert is the great grandson of Industrialist James Gamble (1803-1891) (co-founder of Procter & Gamble), grandson of James N. Gamble (1836-1932) (inventor of Ivory Soap) and son of Maud Gamble and Judge Alfred K. Nippert. The University of Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium is a memorial to Louis Nippert's brother James Gamble Nippert.
